

PRIVACY POLICY

How we use your personal information

1. We provide pet behavioural consultation and dog training services. We may need to process your personal data and we will do so only in accordance with this statement.
2. Much of the information we collect and hold will be/have been provided by you, but some may come from other sources, such as your veterinary surgeon.
3. Where you are or enquire about becoming a client, the basis for us processing your personal data will be to enter into and perform the contract between us.
4. It is our policy to retain clinical records, and as such, personal data for a period of ten (10) years to accommodate on-going care and the potential need to refer to clinical records.
5. Other than as mentioned below, we will only disclose information about you to third parties if we are legally obliged to do so or where we need to comply with our contractual duties to you, for instance we may need to pass on certain information to your pet insurance provider or veterinary surgeon.
6. Personal information may be shared with your insurance company and veterinary surgeon, with who you should already have a relationship.
7. We confirm that we have in place appropriate security measures to protect your personal data from access by unauthorised persons and against unlawful processing, accidental loss, damage or destruction.
8. Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) you have a number of rights with regard to your personal data. You have the right to request from us access to and rectification or erasure of your personal data, the right to restrict processing, object to processing as well as, in certain circumstances, the right to data portability.
9. You have the right to lodge a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office if you believe that we have not complied with the requirements of the GDPR with regard to your personal data.
10. Antonella Marsicano is the data controller for the purposes of the GDPR.
11. If you have any concerns as to how your data is processed you can contact us at help@animalwellbeingcentre.com or write us at 67 Crimsworth Road, SW8 4RJ.
